SFL Companies Donates 196 New Children's Coats to Local Charitable Organizations.

Auburn Hills, Michigan – November 19, 2018 – SFL Companies donated 196 new coats to local communities in Cincinnati, Ohio and Auburn Hills, Michigan. The coats were given to the Brighton Center of Newport, Kentucky and the Baldwin Center of Pontiac, Michigan. Sizes of donated coats range from infant to young adult.

Starting with only 50 coats in 2012, SFL Companies has donated an increasing number of brand-new children's coats every winter season. The coats are donated in the names of SFL's customers, carriers, and business partners. "Our team is dedicated to making a positive impact within our surrounding communities," Royce Neubauer, founder and CEO. "We feel very blessed and fortunate to be in a position to be able to give back to the communities we live and work in."

Brighton Center wraps a community of support around individuals and families by tackling the issues that prevent people from becoming self-sufficient, removing the barriers they face, and creating hope so that goals can be achieved and dreams realized. Their mission is to create opportunities for individuals and families to reach self-sufficiency through family support services, education, employment, and leadership. The Baldwin Center's mission is to feed, clothe, educate and empower the men, women and children of the Pontiac community. The Center has been serving their neighbors since 1981 and currently offers more than 25 support programs that meet basic needs, offer assistance in a crisis, provide education and enrichment opportunities for adults and children, and serve as a safety net.
